We are a leading provider of health and safety consultancy based in the south-west & east midlands

Helping you tick the right Health and Safety boxes for Free!

Safety Horizon, a successful health and safety consultancy with over 40 year's health and safety experience, has recently opened new offices in Stamford, Lincolnshire. With a reputation for clear and simple information, in a fun and practical way, Safety Horizon have helped a large number of different companies with their jargon-free advice.

As an introductory offer to businesses in the area, Safety Horizon are offering a free interactive health and safety training session at the Orion Business Centre in Stamford on Tuesday 11th October from 9am-12pm.

Here you can sample for free what Safety Horizon have to offer, the training session will be packed full of practical advice on how to implement effective health and safety procedures into your workplace and keep up to date with legislation. You will receive examples of health and safety policies along with risk assessment procedures and templates, not forgetting the free tea and coffee too. It's ideal for small business owners and new start-up company owners, as well as managers, supervisors and team leaders from larger companies and everyone will receive a health and safety certificate upon completion of the training.

Colin Nottage who is heading up the new offices in Stamford said, "We chose Stamford as it has some great businesses in the area and it is a beautiful town. Tuesday 11th October is a perfect opportunity for some free interactive health and safety training and is a chance to hear more about what we do and how we can support local businesses. Health and safety training is important because it helps you comply with the law, reduced the chance of people in your business getting hurt and can even reduce your insurance premiums."

He went on to say, "Safety Horizon provides support packages from as little as £195 + VAT per year and will undertake a free health and safety review of your business."
